Julia's Tree Memorial— April 2018

In my Freshman year of college, one of my classmates was a victim of suicide. I created a tree memorial and worked closely with my music education classmates and past leader of Spiritual Life at The College of Saint Rose, Joan Horgan to raise awareness and to recognize the love and support she had around her. Mostly, for her family but also for the Saint Rose community.

Reach Out Saint Rose— Fall 2018, 2019, and 2020

It is an annual day in September where The College of Saint Rose comes together for a day of community service. I participated in my Junior year cleaning up the side of the road in Albany alongside other volunteers in the area. Junior year where we went to local food shelters and prepared meals for the homeless. And Freshman year, where we helped the staff of The Red Bookshelf restore old books for families in the surrounding Albany area.
